

Super Insects

Guided Inquiry Activities to Support the Collectible Cards and Collector's Album

New Zealand Curriculum

Science helps us make sense of the world around us. It is a way of investigating, understanding and explaining our natural and physical world and beyond. This resource creates opportunities to explore, engage and build scientific knowledge while developing students' science capabilities.

ACTIVITY CARDS	Science	Literacy	Numeracy	Art/Technology	Social Sciences
1	What is an insect?	Research and read song/story or poem writing		 Illustrated lifecycle
2	Lifecycle of our Kahukura			Design an insect
3	Amazing Adaptations	Descriptive writing		Observational drawing
4	In our Gardens, Fields, Native Bush & Mountains	Factual writing		Enviro Hero/Wanted poster
5	Introduced Species	Enviro Hero/Wanted poster		Endangered Insect mobile
6	Rare & Endangered	Story or poem		Cartoon or comic strip of an insect's journey
7	Terrific Travellers	Creative writing 'A Journey'	Measurement speed/distance /time	Superhero Art
8	Strong, Big & Fast		Insect to human super-power ratios	Layered mural of stream life	Campaign to clean up a local stream
9	Around our Streams	Factual writing	Counting species numbers	Pictorial representation of bees' work on our land; art/photography/video	Bees and our export industry
10	Good for our Land

Use this overview as a way to easily identify great learning activities about insects

