

Super Insects

Curriculum Links

Nature of Science
Science is a way of explaining the world around us

Science - Living World

Big science ideas

Level 1-2

Living things are suited to their habitat

Level 3-4

Explain how living things are suited to their environment

Use the web links in the magnifying glass to discover more about New Zealand insects

Explore this question bank

<https://www.sciencelearn.org.nz/resources/2493-new-zealand-s-unique-ecosystems-question-bank>

Insect characteristics

<https://www.sciencelearn.org.nz/resources/2842-insects-physical-characteristics>

Find out about our insects orders

https://www.sciencelearn.org.nz/image_maps/86-the-five-insect-orders

Scan QR code

countdown

STRONG, BIG AND FAST

Inquiry

What 'super powers' do New Zealand native insects have?

Which one is your insect superhero? Why?

Discover which insect is the strongest, biggest and fastest in New Zealand.

Engage with pages 38 & 39 of the Collector's Album. check out these pages

Insects really are amazing. Explore the most remarkable insects in the world and create a fun fact to put on your insect display.

A/T Super-hero art - Draw an insect as a superhero representing their super power

N Insect to human super-power ratios - If an insect can jump 20 times its own height, for example, what would that mean for a human?

what a giant!

